

Aula 2

Escola de Educação

Intermediate 2

Profª Fabielle Cruz

1/29

Navigation icons: back, forward, search, and close.

1

Conversa Inicial

2/29

Navigation icons: back, forward, search, and close.

2

I have studied English before.

- How long are you studying English?
- Have you ever studied it before now?
- Why do you study English?

3

Reading: Have you ever?

4

Reading: Have you ever?

John: Kelly, have you ever visited Paris?

Kelly: Yes, I have. A long time ago.

John: And have you been to Louvre?

Kelly: Indeed, the Louvre is amazing!

John: How about the Sacre Coeur Cathedral?

Kelly: No, I haven't been there.
But I really want to go there one day!

5

Reading: Have you ever?

John: So, me and my wife are planning to go!

Kelly: That is nice. I have taken a cruise in the Seine river and I have eaten plenty of croissant.

John: I bet!

Kelly: When are you going?

John: Next July.

Kelly: Oh, I have been there on summer as well, I loved it!

6

Reading: Have you ever?

■ Have you ever...?

7

Grammar: present perfect

8

Grammar: present perfect

- refers to an action or state that:
 - ✓ occurred at an indefinite time in the past
 - ✓ began in the past and continued to the present time

9

Grammar: present perfect

- have/has + the past participle
 - ✓ I have been to Paris.
 - ✓ She has studied a lot.
 - ✓ We have eaten the lasagna here.

10

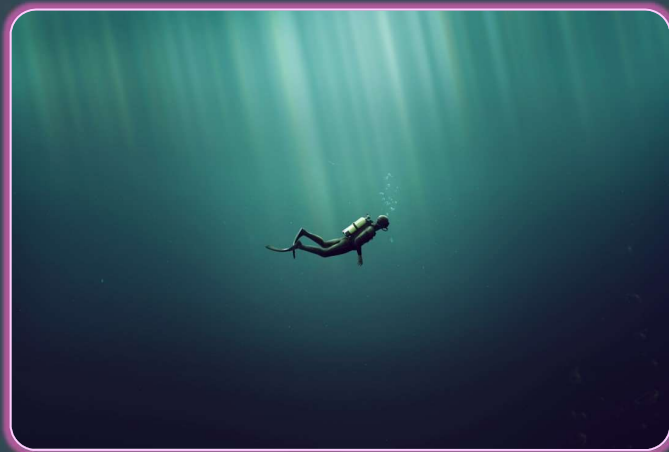

Grammar: present perfect

NAN728/shutterstock

11

Grammar: present perfect

lassedesignen/shutterstock

12

Grammar: present perfect (negative and interrogative)

13

Grammar: present perfect (negative and interrogative)

- Negative: add NOT after HAVE/HAS:
 - ✓ I have not (haven't) read the book.
 - ✓ He has not (hasn't) bought the pies.

14

Grammar: present perfect (negative and interrogative)

- Interrogative: inversion

- ✓ Have you read the book?
- ✓ Has she bought the pies?

15

Have you ever?

16

Have you ever...?

- The present perfect is used to talk about if you did something, not when!
- Ever is often used with the present perfect when talking about experiences.

17

Have you ever been to Thailand?

Balate Dorin/shutterstock

18

Have you ever eaten porridge?

Chamille White/shutterstock

19

Have you ever ridden a camel?

Alexandra Lande/shutterstock

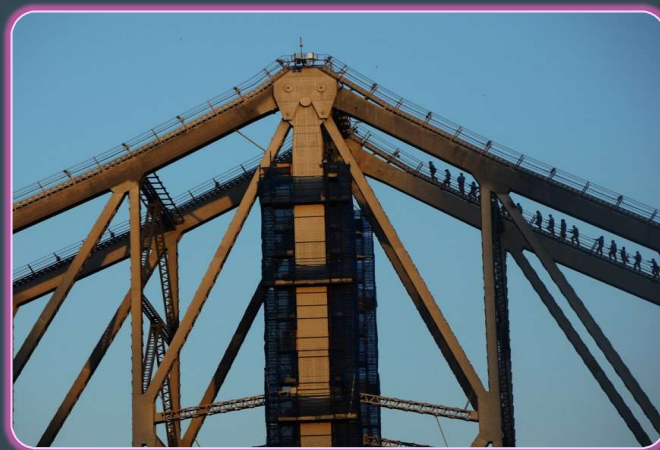

20

Culture time: Leisure around the world

21

Sidney, AUS: bridge climbing

ToyW/shutterstock

22

Las Vegas, US: exotic car racing

Rusya007/shutterstock

23

Floripa, BRA: sandboarding

RODRIGOBARRETO/shutterstock

24

Reykjavik, ICE: glacier climbing

SIHASAKPRACHUM/shutterstock

25

Na Prática

26

Have or Has?

- I _____ searched for a house.
- She _____ (not) painted a picture.
- They _____ traveled to Jamaica.
- He _____ (not) ridden the horse.

27

Finalizando

28

Have you ever seen the rain?

Evgeny Atamanenko/shutterstock

29

Fechar

30