Reading: An invitation

10

Reading: An invitation 1

- Anna: What are you doing on Friday night?
- Julia: Nothing special. Why?
- Anna: Do you wanna see a movie?
- Julia: Sure! What time?
- Anna: Can I pick you up around 7?
- Julia: Sounds good.

11

Reading: An invitation 2

- Anna: Would you like to come over for dinner tonight?
- Julia: I can't. I have to study.
- Anna: OK, then how about getting together for coffee tomorrow afternoon?
- Julia: Sorry. I have other plans. But would you like to go to the mall with me this weekend?
- Anna: For sure!

12

Reading: An invitation 1 and 2

- Which one is formal? And informal?
- What is the difference between them?

13

Invitation: would

14

Invitation: would

- We use both 'will' and 'would' to make requests or invitations. The meaning is the same for both, but a request with 'would' is more polite than a request with 'will'.

15

Invitation: would

- use subject + would + infinitive:
 - ✓ I would like some coffee.
 - ✓ She would rather go to the cinema.
 - ✓ We would prefer to leave immediately.
 - ✓ Would you mind helping me?

16

Invitation: would

- use 'would' to talk about willingness (willingness means that you are happy to do something)
 - ✓ I would finish the essay.
 - ✓ She wouldn't let the kids go to the cinema.
 - ✓ Would you be ready by 9pm?
